

Rules for Temporary Noncommercial Signs During Campaign Periods

The table below summarizes Carlsbad Municipal Code Chapter 11.44 (Private Party Signs on City Property) and Carlsbad Municipal Code 21.41 (Sign Ordinance). Please refer to the code for exact language and requirements.

	Residential Property	Nonresidential Property	City Street Right-of-Way (10 feet beyond curb)
Permit Required	No Need permission of owner	No Need permission of owner	Yes $60
When	30 days prior to election 5 days after the election	30 days prior to election 5 days after the election	30 days prior to election 5 days after the election
Where	5 feet from property line	5 feet from property line	City right-of-way in "commercial/industrial" zones and "major" roads (see map)
Size	10 sq. ft. total signage per dwelling unit	10 sq. ft. total signage per property	6 sq. ft. per sign
Height	Not more than 3.5 ft. above average grade in front yard Not more than 6 ft. above average grade elsewhere	Not more than 3.5 ft. above average grade in front of property Not more than 6 ft. above average grade elsewhere	Not less than 1 ft. above grade and not more than 6 ft. above grade

General Rules

- May not attach to utility poles or boxes, traffic control signs or device supports, trees, other signs or bus benches
- May not place in the road, on a sidewalk or in a median strip
- May not block any other permitted sign or obstruct public access, such as sidewalks, or vehicle visibility
- A noncommercial message of any type may be substituted on an existing permitted sign without getting a new permit

For More Information

For clarification of campaign sign rules or to report a violation, please call Code Compliance, 760-602-2703.